

Community House Bromley

Community House is a vibrant resource centre for the community and voluntary sector in the London Borough of Bromley.

Situated in the old Magistrates Court building close to Bromley town centre, it set high standards of accessibility and professionalism for the benefit of all users and service providers alike.

It is home to 13 voluntary and community organisations, delivering a wide range of services and support to residents of the borough of Bromley. Many more community groups hire the facilities to hold meetings and events throughout the year.

What space is available to hire?

A wide range of rooms and workspaces (including individual hot desks – better than WFH?) for meetings, events and activities. Therefore, whether it's a one-off meeting you need to arrange, or a regular booking for a new service you are offering, there will have something to suit your requirements. Follow this link to find out more.

Connectivity and comfort

- fast and free Wifi throughout the building
- the onsite South Street Cafe is open each weekday
- with toilet facilities available on each floor

Some of Community House visitors have commented:

"Community House is an ideal venue to hire" Hadeel Turkmani, Service Coordinator (South East London), NHS Diabetes Prevention

"Having a café on site is an added bonus!" Carolyn Couchman, Clinical Director, Head of Service, Bromley Community Counselling Service.

If you would like to know more about this amazing place visit their website