What is it about?

As part of the Young Londoners Funding, Community Links Bromley, Bromley Children and Families Voluntary Sector Forum and Bexley CVS (BVSC) have come together to organise a series of BBLN (Bromley and Bexley Local Network) events. The purpose is to share learning in order to upskill the voluntary sector in the two boroughs to enable them to be more resilient and effective when working with children and young people. The first BBLN will be about Engagement and Participation of CYP in the design and delivery of services.

When is it?

Tuesday 1 December from 9.30am - 12.30pm via Zoom (login details sent with registration confirmation email)

Who is it for?

Voluntary and Community Sector organisations from Bromley and Bexley and LA/CCG colleagues who work directly with CYP.

Why come?

Share good practice with colleagues from 2 boroughs across the voluntary and public sector; learn new skills; increase your income through better funding bids; higher quality activities
